

Wassily Kandinsky Inspired Composition Rubric

Research and Inspiration

Research: The student has conducted thorough research on the work of Wassily Kandinsky and demonstrates a clear understanding of his style and use of color, line, shape, texture, movement, pattern, balance and composition. (10 points)

Inspiration: The student's composition demonstrates a clear connection to Kandinsky's work and shows evidence of being inspired by his style. (10 points)

Use of Design Principles and Elements

Design Principles: The student has effectively applied the design principles of color, line, shape, texture, movement, pattern, balance, and composition in their work. (30 points)

Craftsmanship: The student has taken their time to create a well-crafted composition, paying attention to details and precision. (20 points)

Overall Presentation

Neatness: The composition is neat, clean, and free of smudges or eraser marks. (10 points)

Creativity: The student has shown creativity and originality in their composition. (20 points)

Total: 100 points